

ثمرة العلم العمل

The fruit of scholarship is... work

The Ottoman Roots of Arabic Computing

Lecture by Thomas Milo, President of DecoType, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Thursday, October 21, 1999 6pm to 7:30pm

The Cooper Union

The Cooper Union Cooper Square New York NY 10003

The Ottoman Roots of Arabic Computing

Thomas Milo is a specialist in Arabic, Turkic and Slavic linguistics and develops Arabic font technology.

The Cooper Union

Foundation Building
Peter Cooper Suite, 8th floor
7 East 7th Street

For further information
212.353.4214

Sponsored by:

The Type Directors Club, Spectrum Multilanguage Communications and The Herb Lubalin Study Center of Design and Typography